LONDON, SATURDAY, July 12. 1735. NUMB. CCLXXXI.

Continuation of Sir William Davenant's Burleſque on the two Cities of London and Paris.

The Pariſian.

BEFORE I leave you in your Houſes (where your Eſtates are manag'd by your Servants, and your Perſons educated by your Wives) I will take a ſhort Survey of your Children; to whom you are ſo terrible, that you ſeem to make uſe of Authority whilſt they are young, as if you knew it would not continue till their Manhood. You begin with them in ſuch rough Diſcipline, as if they were born mad, and you meant to fright them into their Wits again, before they had any to loſe. When they increaſe in Years, you make them Strangers; keeping them at ſuch Diſtance, out of Jealouſy they ſhould preſume to be your Companions, that, when they reach Manhood, they uſe you as if they were none of your Acquaintance. But we ſubmit to be familiar with ours, that we may beget their Affection before it is too late to expect it. If you take Pains to teach them any Thing, it is only what they ſhould not learn, Baſhfulneſs; which you interpret to be their Reſpect towards you, but it rather ſhews they are in Trouble, and afraid of you; and not only of you, but all that are elder than themſelves; as if Youth were a Crime, or, as if you had a greater Quarrel to Nature than to the Devil; you ſeem to teach them to be aſham'd of their Perſons, even then when you are willing to excuſe their Faults. Methinks when ours are grave they are but dull; and we are content not to have them demure and tame, whilſt they are Youths, leſt Reſtraint (which always inclines to Extreams when it is chang'd to Liberty) ſhould make them rude and wild when they are Men.

This Education you give them at home; but tho' you have frequently the Pride to diſdain the Behaviour of other Nations, yet you have ſometimes the Diſcretion to ſend your Sons abroad to learn it. To Paris they come; the School of Europe; where is taught the Approaches and Demeanours towards Power: Where they may learn Honour, which is the generous Honeſty; which is the civil Boldneſs of Courts. But there they arrive not to converſe with us, but with themſelves; to ſee the Gates of the Court, not to enter and frequent it; or to take a haſty Survey of Greatneſs, as far as Envy, but not to ſtudy it, as far as Imitation. At laſt return home, deſpiſing thoſe neceſſary Virtues which they took not Pains to acquire; and are only ill alter'd in their Dreſs and Mind, by making that a Deformity in ſeeming over-careful and forc'd, which we make graceful in being negligent and eaſy.

I have now left your Houſes, and am paſſing thro' your Streets; but, not in a Coach, for they are uneaſily hung, and ſo narrow, that I took them for Sedans upon Wheels: Nor is it ſafe for a Stranger to uſe them till the Quarrel be decided, whether ſix of your Nobles, ſitting together, ſhall ſtop, and give Place to as many Barrels of Beer. Your City is the only Metropolis of Europe, where there is a wonderful Dignity belonging to Carts. Maſter Londoner! be not ſo hot againſt Coaches: Take Advice from one that eats much Sorrel in his Broth. Can you be too civil to ſuch Gentry as bravely ſcorn to be provident? Who, when they have no Buſineſs here to employ them, nor publick Pleaſures to divert them, yet even then kindly invent Occaſions to bring them hither, that at your own Rates, they may change their Land for our Wares; and have purpoſely avoided the coarſe Study of Arithmetick, leſt they ſhould be able to affront you with examining your Accompts.

I wonder at your Riches, when I ſee you drink in a Morning, but more at your Confidence, when I ſee gray Beards come out of a Tavern and ſtay at the Door to make the laſt Debate of their Buſineſs; and I am yet more amaz'd at your Health when I taſte your Wine: but moſt of all at your Politicks, in permitting ſuch publick Poiſoning under the Stile of free Myſtery to encourage Trade and Diligence.

I would now make a faſe Retreat, but that methinks I am ſtopp'd by one of your heroick Games, call'd Foot-Ball; which I conceive (under your Favour) not very conveniently civil in the Streets; eſpecially in ſuch irregular and narrow Roads as Crooked Lane. Yet it argues your Courage much like your military Paſtime of throwing at Cocks. But your Mettle would be more magnified (ſince you have long allow'd thoſe valiant Exerciſes in the Street) to draw your Archers from Finſbury, and during high Market, let them ſhoot at Butts in Cheapſide. I have now no more to ſay but what refers to a few private Notes which I ſhall give you in a Whiſper when we meet in Morefields; from whence (becauſe the Place was for publick Pleaſure, and to ſhew the Magnificence of your City) I ſhall deſire you to baniſh the Landereſſers and Blechers, whoſe Acres of old Linnen make a Shew like the Fields of Carthagena, when the five Months Shifts of the whole Fleet are waſh'd and ſpread: Or elſe you will give me Leave to conclude in Behalf of Luxemberg and the Tuilleries, as no ill Accommodation for the Citizens of Paris.

The Londoner.

Ever noble and moſt ſufficient Judge; I am ſo little angry with my Adverſary, that I am ready to entitle him, as a Stranger, to Protection from you, and Civility from myſelf. You find, in his Survey of this renown'd City, he has undertaken to be pleaſant, and to make you ſo too: But Men who are pleas'd themſelves, cannot when they liſt diſperſe their gay Humour amongſt others: It being much more eaſy to intice Anger than Mirth. I preſume I am ſo far from needing the Advantage, or from growing inſolent with the Honour, of having you my Judges, that I prefer myſelf to him; whilſt I preſent him Paris in the ſame Glaſs where he reflected London: And he is not a little oblig'd in being made capable of reforming his Judgment by the Helps of Compariſon.

Give me Leave (Monſieur de Paris) to be conducted from Dieppe by one of your Meſſagers, who are as magiſterial on the Road as old Rangers in a Foreſt, and on my Norman Nag (which, tho' it has ſo many Legs as a Caterpillar, yet by the Advantage of being well ſpurr'd, makes ſhift to travel as faſt) I enter your City at Porte St. Martin; and ere I light, would be glad by awing a Limb, to compound for the reſt of my Body; ſo furious are you in your Hoſpitality when you call aloud to take in Strangers, in ſpight of their Teeth, into your Houſes, and lodge them for more than enough of their Money. But ſuch Importunity, and even for mean Profit, ſhould rather be interpreted as the Vehemence of witty People, that have hot Brains, as the Signs of general Poverty: Whilſt we, phlegmatick Iſlanders, are too dull to be ſo troubleſome for a little Money as may ſhew we want it.

Before I enter your Houſes, I cannot chuſe but take Notice of your Streets; by which I diſcern, tho' you are now unanimouſly glorious, yet your Anceſtors and you had different Minds; for tho' la Rue St. Antoine, St. Honoré and St. Dennis are large enough for the Viſta, yet la Rue Tirechape, la Tannerie and la Huchetta ſtand ſo much in the Shade, that there your beautiful Wives need neither Vails nor Fans; you being fain to lay Traps at your Windows to catch the Sun-Beams. But this you will ſay, was the Defect of our Anceſtors, not of yours; who, in a wandering Humour, made bold to croſs the Channel, march up to Paris, and build your Houſes after their own Faſhion.

As I paſs along, I bow before every Palace; but 'tis to the Giant Switz that ſtands in carbonaded Breeches at the Gate; who coming a long Journey, merely to keep your Natives in Awe, has Reaſon to expect Reverence from a Stranger. Now methinks you with the Gout in my Finger, becauſe I point not with great Wonder at the Louvre; which I confeſs has a very ſingular Way of being wonderful; the Fame of the Palace conſiſting more on the vaſt Deſign of what it was meant to be than the Largeneſs of what it is: The Structure being likewiſe a little remarkable for which is old, but more even for the Antiquity of what is new; having been begun ſome Ages paſt, and is to be finiſh'd many Ages hence; which (I take it) may be a Sign of the Glory, but not of the Wealth of your Founders. I will paſs into your Fauxbourgs by Port Rouge; a Bridge not built to be uſeful to you in the Strength of it, but rather to ſhew the Strength of your River to Strangers, when, maugre your Guards of Switz, it often carries an Arch out of your City.

[The reſt another Time.]

To the Author of the WEEKLY REGISTER.

SIR,

AS the Profeſſors of our Common Law in private Converſations, as well as publick Papers, have been very much confuſed (with what Reaſon themſelves know beſt) for their embroiling Family Affairs, and ſpinning out Cauſes to an unreaſonable Length, it is a great Pleaſure to every candid Perſon, when he can do that Juſtice to Particulars, which, it is to be fear'd, he cannot to Generals: Such was the Caſe mentioned in ſeveral Books of the Epitaph made by Ben Johnſon on a Lawyer, who was a peaceful, uſeful Member to his Neighbourhood, compromiſed all Differences between them, and ſo ſingular was the Harmony of that Place by his Diligence, that when in Surrey, I think was the County, his Death was very much lamented, the Poet broke out into this remarkable Rapture.

God works Wonders now and then;
Here lies a Lawyer, and an honeſt Man.

What Ground there is for this Story I could never learn, more than a Tradition handed down, tho' without the good Man's Name, ſo that we may give it what Credit we pleaſe, but a more modern Inſtance there is, and that to be ſeen no farther than Hampſtead, which for its Singularity (tho' I am aſſured it is Truth) I now ſend you, if it merit a Place in your Paper. From Gray's-Inn, Your conſtant Reader.

Here lies the Body of
NICHOLAS HALL,
Of Furnival's-Inn, Gent.
Obiit March the 29th, 1730.
Aged 35.
He was of a generous Temper,
Not dilatory in Practice,
But with Integrity and Expedition
Executed Truſts repoſed in him,
And was of Principles truly juſt.

SATURDAY, July 5.

ON Wedneſday laſt was heard before his Honour the Maſter of the Rolls, a Petition againſt an eminent Attorney in Cornhill, for having three articled Clerks at one Time, contrary to an Act paſſed in the 2d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; whereupon, after a long Debate, his Honour was pleaſed to order, that the third Clerk ſhould be diſcharged, and his Articles cancelled, and the whole Money taken with ſuch Clerk returned, and that he ſhould ſerve a freſh Clerkſhip, notwithſtanding he had ſerved near two Years.

We hear that the Proſecution of the noble Lord's Valet de Chambre who married Miſs Weſtern without the Conſent of her Mother and Guardian, was carried on in order to try whether his Caſe was in the Deſcription of the Statute of Philip and Mary, which gives the Eſtate of the Wife to the next of Kin; ſo that the Jury having found him guilty, and the Eſtate being forfeited, we hear it is the Intention of the Lady's Relations to keep them ſeparated, and to allow him ſome Proviſion for his Subſiſtence; and that in caſe he conforms himſelf to theſe Terms, 'tis thought they will not inſiſt on the Penalty of Impriſonment.

N. B. Advertiſements, of a reaſonable Length, are put in this Paper at Two Shillings and Six-Pence each.

His Majeſty continues in good Health at Hanover. On the 9th Inſtant, N. S. he diverted himſelf with the Humour of his Soldiery, to whom he had order'd a general Day of Recreation; they met in the Morning, dreſs'd in Antick Habits, each Company having a King and a Queen, and in that Manner they march'd up the grand Avenue to Herenhauſen, and croſs'd the Palace to a Meadow where they were to have their Entertainment. As ſoon as their Dinner was over, his Majeſty, accompany'd by Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel, and the whole Court, went thither to ſee their Paſtimes, and were pleaſed to order Money to be thrown amongſt them, which caus'd great Tranſports and Acclamations; and they continued their Mirth till next Morning, without any Manner of Diſorder.

On Tueſday laſt an Apprentice to an eminent Packer of this City, was married at the Fleet to a young Gentlewoman of Mile-End-Green, about 16 Years of Age, a 12,000 l. Fortune.

Her Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſend fifty Guineas towards the Relief of the unhappy Sufferers at the late Fire in Cecil-Court in St. Martin's-Lane, and in St. Martin's-Court adjoining.

We hear that the Queen's Waiters at Table at Court will be laid aſide; and the Gentlemen be allow'd 6 s. 8 d. per Diem, Board Wages, in Lieu thereof.

Yeſterday came on, at the Sittings at Guildhall, before the Right Honourable the Lord Hardwicke, Lord Chief Juſtice of the King's-Bench, a Cauſe wherein a School-Maſter was Plaintiff, and an eminent Merchant of this City, Defendant; the Action was brought for upwards of 100 l. for keeping a Female Infant, under the Age of fourteen Years, finding it in Cloaths, Schooling, and all other Neceſſaries. The Caſe appear'd thus; the Defendant had recommended the Plaintiff to a Wife, to whom he was married in the Year 1730, and ſoon after the Marriage a Child was brought home, who was ſaid to be his Wife's, which ſhe had by the Merchant, upon which the School-Maſter applying to the Defendant, he deſir'd him to be eaſy, and take Care of the Child in a handſome Manner and he would ſatisfy him for it; upon which the Jury brought in a Verdict for the Plaintiff, allowing him 23 l. per Annum for the Girl's Maintenance for four Years and three Quarters, which was the Time the Plaintiff prov'd he had kept the Child.

We are inform'd that the Ships Cunningham, Bootle and Nile, of 450 Tons each, ſail'd about three Weeks ago for Jamaica, and had on board vaſt Quantities of Fire-Arms, and in each Ship 60 Men and a Maſter of Arms; they were attended by two Tranſport Ships, the Owners of which are Perſons of Diſtinction, ſtood them in 14,000 l. each, and are mounted with 32 Guns and as many Pateraroes; and that ſhould a War happen, they will act as Privateers in the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies.

Preferment. The Rev. Mr. Bernard Wilſon, M. A. Vicar of Newark upon Trent, and Prebendary of Lincoln, is preſented by his Grace the Duke of Rutland to the Rectory of Bottesford, alias Bottesworth, in the County of Leiceſter and Dioceſe of Lincoln, worth upwards of 300 l. per Annum.

MONDAY, July 7.

Six ingenious Artiſts in their reſpective Profeſſions, viz. a Jeweller, a Mathematical Inſtrument-maker, a Lapidary, a Lockſmith, a Turner of hard Wares, and a Sculptor, have contracted with his Excellency Prince Cantemir, the Empreſs of Ruſſia's Miniſter at this Court, to go to Petersburg, to exerciſe their Arts at that Court.

The Lightning which happen'd on Saturday Morning did conſiderable Damage to ſeveral Houſes, and tore up ſeveral Trees by the Roots about Chelſea and Fulham.

On Wedneſday laſt a Boy, Servant to a Gentleman at Epping, being ſent with one of his Maſter's Horſes to the Farrier's, and not finding him at home, he alighted, and ſet himſelf on the Ground to wait his coming, having the Bridle twiſted round his Arm; but on a ſudden the Horſe took Fright, and dragg'd the Boy along till his Brains were daſh'd out, and taking thro' a Hedge, the Body ſtuck by the Way, and the Force of the Horſe tore the Arm off.

On Friday Morning laſt about Six o'Clock, a Gentleman coming from Kingston to London on Horſeback, ſaw a Gentleman's Coach and four ſtopt on Putney-Heath by a ſingle Highwayman, and immediately rode up, in Hopes of ſuccouring the Company, who prov'd to be three Gentlemen within, and two Footmen behind; but the Moment he came up, the Highwayman turn'd about and clapp'd a Piſtol to his Head, made him diſmount, pull off his Horſe's Bridle and Saddle, and turn him looſe; which done, he robb'd the Gentlemen in the Coach, next the Gentleman he had diſmounted, and then the two Footmen, to the Amount of near 30 l. after which he made off croſs the Heath. Whilſt he was committing the Robbery, two Men, well mounted, rode paſt, but never offer'd to interrupt him, which makes it ſuſpected they belong'd to his Gang, tho' he preſented a Piſtol at them as they went by. He was very well dreſs'd, and mounted on a bright bay Horſe.

We hear that a Marriage is treating between his Royal Highneſs the Duke, and a Princeſs of the Houſe of Saxe Gotha.

They write from Lisbon, that the King of Portugal had preſented Sir John Norris with Jewels to the Value of 6000 l. Sterling.

The Corpſe of Sir Henry Furneſe, Bart. who died at Marſeilles in France on the 18th of March laſt, O. S. after an Illneſs of five Days, in which he was attended by one of the King of France's Phyſicians, and arriv'd on board the Ship Georgia at Dover, after a Paſſage of nine Weeks, was interr'd at Waldeſhire in Kent, on Thurſday Night laſt, the Hearſe being preceded by a vaſt Number of his Tenants on Horſeback, in Mourning Cloaks; the Hearſe was adorn'd with Plumes of Feathers, Eſcutcheons, &c. in a moſt magnificent Manner. The Pall was ſupported by Sir James Gray, Bart. Thomas D'Aeth, Eſq; —— Brookman, Eſq; Edward Harvey, Eſq; —— Knowler, Eſq: and Capt. Pybus. Capt. Paramour was chief Mourner. The Funeral Service was performed by the Rev. Mr. Lloyd, and according to a Cuſtom in the Family, a large Sum of Money was diſtributed among the neighbouring Poor. The Death of this Gentleman, which happened at the Age of nineteen Years wanting one Day, is greatly lamented throughout the County of Kent.

On the 1ſt Inſtant died at Tetuan, John Leonard Zollicoffree, Eſq; his Majeſty's Ambaſſador, and Conſul General to the Emperor of Morocco.——On Tueſday laſt died, in the 55th Year of his Age, the Rev. Mr. Clarke, B. D. one of the Senior Fellows of St. John's-College, Cambridge.——On Saturday laſt died at Clapham, Mr. Smith, a wealthy Whalebone Merchant on London-Bridge.

TUESDAY, July 8.

Yeſterday the Seſſions ended at the Old Bailey, when the ſix following Perſons received Sentence of Death, viz. John Wilſon, for aſſaulting Mary Harriſon on the Highway, and taking from her a Pocket, a Pair of Gloves, two Thimbles, and one Shilling in Money; Robert Morpeth and Robert Kiffe, for robbing Mr. Stamper on the Highway near Kingſland, of two Guineas, a Silver Watch, and a Pair of Silver Buckles; Edward Ormſby, for ſtealing a Silver Tankard out of the Houſe of Richard Lilly; John Macdonal and Thomas Martin, for ſtealing a Horſe and a Bay Mare, the Property of Mr. Lee and Mr. Thorp. Three were burnt in the Hand, and three order'd to be whipt. One Dean was indicted for engraving the Counterfeit Stamp, and after a Trial of ſeveral Hours he was acquitted. At the ſaid Seſſions 32 were caſt for Tranſportation, and 46 acquitted.

On Sunday Morning about One o'Clock, a Man and Woman were obſerv'd by ſome Bargemen to drop ſomething over the Rails into the Thames at Queenhith-Dock, and ſome Time after a Hand-Basket was found in a Lighter, with ſomething ſew'd up in it, which upon opening prov'd to be a Female Child, thought by the Bigneſs of the Limbs to be about four Years old, her Head being cut off and not there, one Arm off, and both the Legs, with the Belly ript open and the Bowels taken out; there was a great deal of Red Lead in the Basket, which was put in to ſink it in the Thames. No Diſcovery has as yet been made of the Authors of this barbarous Murder, the Head being taken away that the Child might not be known.

The late wet Weather has done great Damage to the Hay and Corn, within 10 and 12 Miles about London, the latter being very much lodg'd, tho' in many Places it was blighted before; ſo that the beſt Wheat ſold laſt Saturday at Kingſton-Market at 10 Guineas, and 11 Pound a Load; which is a better Price than it ſells for abroad; ſuch great Quantities having been exported, that Corn at Foreign Markets bears no Price.

A great Match at Cricket has been lately made between his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales and the Earl of Middleſex, for 1000 l. eight of the London Club, and three out of the County of Middleſex, are to play for the Prince, againſt 11 to be choſen by the Earl of Middleſex out of the County of Kent; they are to play twice, viz. once at Moulſey, and once at Dartford in Kent; the firſt Match is to be play'd next Saturday at Moulſey-Hurſt, and his Royal Highneſs is expected there by Eleven o'Clock in the Morning.

On Saturday laſt the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Gage, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for Tewkesbury in Glouceſterſhire, after a ſolemn Invitation from the Directors of Greenwich-Hoſpital, went to that Place, and laid the firſt Stone of the ſecond Wing, where the Chapel is to be, after which a handſome Dinner was prepar'd in the Council-Room, where the Lieutenant-Governor, ſeveral of the Directors, and all the Officers of the College, were entertain'd at two Tables. The Derwentwater Eſtate, the Recovery of which is owing to his Lordſhip, and which was by Parliament given to the ſaid Hoſpital, will be worth 8000 l. a Year, beſides 10,000 l. ready Money, which the late Poſſeſſors are oblig'd to refund.

Yeſterday, at the Seſſions by Adjournment held at Guildhall, George Hutchinſon, who among his Companions goes by the Name of the Indian Queen, having been tried and convicted on Monday the 30th of June laſt, for extorting and unjuſtly getting from Mr. Joſiah Pack, an Apprentice to a Mercer in Gracechurch-ſtreet, a Silver Watch, Seal, a Toothpick-caſe, and about three Shillings in Money, under Pretence and Threats of charging the ſaid Mr. Pack with the Crime of Sodomy, was ſentenc'd to ſtand twice in the Pillory, firſt at the Royal-Exchange, and then in Fenchurch-ſtreet, oppoſite the King's-Head Tavern, where he committed the Fact, to ſuffer twelve Months Impriſonment in Newgate, and give Security for his good Behaviour for three Years.

We hear, that the ſecond Rate Ships that are in the Squadron at Lisbon, will return home againſt Winter, and that only the third and fourth Rates will ride in the Tagus all Winter; for if the whole Fleet were to return home, it would be very eaſy for the Spaniards to turn out of their Ports, and do the Portugueze great Miſchief, even in that Seaſon.

We hear, his Majeſty being preſſed at Hanover by certain Powers, to recall the Engliſh Fleet under Sir John Norris at Lisbon, was pleaſed to ſend the following Anſwer by the Right Hon. the Lord Harrington, to a certain Miniſter there.

1. That his Majeſty had no other Reaſon to ſend a Fleet to Lisbon, than to protect the Brazil Fleet, where his Subjects Effects are very great. 2. That his Majeſty could not recall the Fleet till ſome Deſigns of Spain and France were laid aſide. 3. That his Majeſty is ſo much concerned in the Affairs between Spain and Portugal, as to do as much as lies in his Power (his Mediation being equally accepted between the two Crowns) to prevent a Rupture, and forward the Accommodation between them. 4. That his Majeſty hopes the new Propoſals made to the Allies will be accepted, and anſwered ſoon; otherwiſe, his Majeſty (who has nothing ſo much at Heart as Peace) will be obliged to declare himſelf for the Publick Good, and the Liberty of Nations.

On Friday laſt arriv'd the important News, that after a long Struggle between the French Ambaſſador and the Miniſter of a certain Power, to engage the King and Senate of Sweden in their reſpective Intereſts, a Treaty is actually ſign'd between Sweden and France for three Years; an Incident very diſagreeable to the Emperor, and all Well-wiſhers to the Liberties of Europe.

We hear that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty is to pay the Swediſh Court a Subſidy of ſeveral hundred thouſand Crowns per Ann. during the Subſiſtence of the Treaty.

Death. On Sunday died, at her Houſe near Ipſwich, Mrs. Fielding, Relict of Maurice Fielding, Eſq; reputed worth 16,000 l. and 450 l. per Annum.

Bankrupts. Mary Thompſon, of the City of York, Mercer and Draper.——William Shakleton, of Preſton, in the County of Lancaſter, Grocer.

THURSDAY, July 10.

On Tueſday laſt came on at Guildhall, before the Lord Hardwicke, a Cauſe, wherein two Rheniſh Wine-Merchants and a Vintner, as Aſſignees of a certain Bankrupt, were Plaintiffs, and another Vintner, Defendant: The Caſe was this: On the 2d of July, 1731, the Bankrupt entered into a Contract with the Defendant, under the Penalty of 1000 l. for the Purchaſe of the Leaſe, Goods and Plate of a certain Tavern near Temple-Bar, where the Defendant then lived, and was to take Poſſeſſion the 3d of September following, and accordingly the Contract was performed; the Bankrupt carried on the Trade in the ſaid Tavern till April, 1732, and then a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy was awarded againſt him; the Aſſignees brought their Action againſt the Defendant for the Money he had received from the Bankrupt for the Conſideration mentioned; and after a Trial which laſted about two Hours, the Plaintiffs were nonſuited. There was ſomething ſo very extraordinary in this Trial, that great Numbers of Merchants and other conſiderable Dealers, attended to wait the Iſſue thereof.

We hear that her Majeſty has been pleaſed to order a Warrant to paſs the Privy Seal, authorizing Sir Charles Wager, Knt. to receive from the Ironmongers Company of this City, and all other Perſons, ſuch Monies as are or ſhall be depoſited in their Hands, that ought to be applied for redeeming all ſuch of his Majeſty's Subjects as are or ſhall be taken Captives and carried into Slavery.

Yeſterday was held a Court of the Worſhipful Company of Fiſhmongers, when it was moved that their Hall might be appropriated for the Uſe of the Lord Mayor for the enſuing Year; but they thought not proper to lett it.

Laſt Thurſday, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, John Bailey, a Scotchman, was robbed between Newmarket and Chippenham, in the County of Cambridge, of 43 l. 9 s. and Lace, Hair, &c. amounting in all to the Value of 69 l. by two Highwaymen, who, 'tis remarkable, had not left the Scotchman above two Minutes, when one of them returned, and gave him back all his Goods and 10 s. of the Money, and then they both rode off undiſcover'd.

Marriage. On Tueſday laſt Nathaniel Blackerby, Eſq; one of the Juſtices of the Peace for the Liberty of Weſtminſter, was married to the Widow Philpot, Daughter to Nicholas Hawkſmoor, Eſq; Surveyor of his Majeſty's Works.

Death. Sunday Se'nnight died at Salisbury, the Hon. Mrs. Egerton, Relict of the Hon. Charles Egerton.

FRIDAY, July 11.

Yeſterday came on at Guildhall, before the Rt. Hon. the Ld. Hardwicke, Ld. Chief Juſtice of the King's-Bench, a great Cauſe, wherein John Boſworth, Eſq; Chamberlain of the City of London, was Plaintiff, and Daniel Watſon, Shalloon and Drugget-ſeller, Defendant; the Action was brought againſt the Defendant by the City of London, in the Name of their Chamberlain, for opening Shop in Black-Fryars and retailing his Goods there without being a Freeman of the City of London. The Council for the Plaintiff were Mr. Serjeant Hawkins, Mr. Serjeant Urling, Deputy Recorder, Mr. Common-Serjeant Garrard, Counſellor Noel, and Counſellor Moreton, who alledg'd that Black-Fryars actually belong'd to the City of London when it was a Monaſtery, and before Trades were ever occupy'd there; to prove which they produced ſeveral antient Records, viz. a Charter of King Edward I. calling it the Fryars of London; a Record 11 Richard II. calling it the Friary of London; and another when the Parliament was ſummon'd to meet in the City of London, 21 Henry VIII. it was expreſs, begun and held at the Fryars Preachers of the City of London, Nov. 3, 1530, and again 14 and 15 Henry VIII. the 15th of April, the King went to the Fryars Preachers of London, and ſeveral other Records of this Kind: The Council for the Plaintiff likewiſe cited a Parallel Caſe to this, 15 Car. I. when an Action was brought againſt one Philpot, a Shoemaker of Black-Fryars, for opening Shop and vending Shoes there without being free of the City; and after a Trial, by an equal and indifferent Jury of the County of Hertford, a Verdict was given for the City: They then call'd two or three Officers of the City to prove that they had executed Writs and other Proceſſes in Black-Fryars; and then the Council left the Iſſue to reſt upon the Record before-mentioned. The Defendant's Council pleaded Cuſtom Time out of Mind, and call'd eleven Witneſſes, who declar'd they had known Black-Fryars, ſome of them twenty, thirty, forty Years and upwards, and that ſeveral Perſons had kept open Shop there unmoleſted and not Freemen; tho' ſome of them could not deny but that there had been People ſued, particularly about a Year ago, when a Perſon ſuffer'd Judgment to go againſt him by Default. Upon the Whole, after a Trial of about five Hours, the Jury, who were all indifferent Perſons choſe out of the County of Middleſex, after ſtaying out near Half an Hour, brought in a Verdict for the Plaintiff, with five Shillings Damage.

The only Daughter of an eminent Tradeſman in this City, being diſappointed in a tender Affair, came laſt Tueſday Morning to her Father's Room, and fired a Piſtol at him, but miſſed him; upon which ſhe took a Knife ſhe had in her Pocket, and would have cut her Father's Throat; but being overpowered by her Father, was confined to a Room; and the ſame Evening ſhe ſent for her Father, and before him ſtabbed herſelf in two Places on the Groin, ſaying, I deſerve what I do, and died the ſame Night.

The Repairing and Beautifying Lincoln's-Inn-Fields will very ſoon be ſet about; there's to be a low Brick Wall, cop'd with Stone, and Iron Palliſadoes thereon, to encloſe the whole Field all round; the Fields are to be laid out in Graſs and Gravel Walks, and a large Baſon in the Middle for a Reſervoir, and no Paſſage or Walks acroſs for Paſſengers: And we hear it is propos'd to raiſe annually, till completed, 2 s. 6 d. in the Pound, on the Rents of each Houſe, which it is computed will raiſe 600 l. per Annum: And it is ſaid, the Building the Wall, with the Palliſadoes, Iron Grates, Levelling the Ground, and laying it down in Walks, &c. will come to about 7000 l.

A Scheme having been drawn for building a Square of Houſes in the room of Montagu-Houſe in Great Ruſſel-ſtreet, Bloomsbury; we hear the ſame hath met with Approbation.

A Marriage, we hear, has been propos'd, between Prince William of Heſſe, and the Princeſs Amelia of Great Britain.

Yeſterday one Pelham, and the noted Man from Bridgnorth, jump'd in White-Conduit-Field twenty Jumps for forty Guineas a Side, which were won by the latter by ſeven Yards: He jump'd, in the twenty Jumps, ſeventy-four Yards and two Foot.

They write from Paris, that an Engliſh Gentleman there has given 600 Louis d'Ors, to receive one a Day till Mantua is taken.

Marriage. Yeſterday Morning James Mollow, Eſq; was married to Miſs Anne Molin, only Daughter of the late Mr. Peter Molin, an eminent Linnen-Draper of this City; a beautiful young Lady, with an Eſtate of 350 l. per Annum.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LETTERS from Warſaw ſay, that all the Kingdom of Poland has ſubmitted, by Deputations, to King Auguſtus, except three or four Palatinates and a few Diſtricts, whoſe Deputies were likewiſe on the Road to Warſaw with their Submiſſions.

But our Advices from Paris are ſuch as will defeat all the Labours of our Negotiations, and perhaps King Auguſtus's Hopes into the Bargain, if the French King and his Miniſters keep their Word with King Staniſlaus. Count Ozarowsky, that Prince's Ambaſſador, had a particular Audience of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty the 3d Inſtant, in which the King anſwer'd him with his own Mouth in theſe preciſe Terms:

'I deſire you, Sir, to aſſure the Republick 'anew that I never will ſheath my Sword un'til I have eſtabliſh'd my Father-in-Law on his 'Throne, having drawn it with no other 'View than to ſupport the Liberties of Po'land and his free Election.' This Miniſter has been treated with the ſame Honours that were obſerv'd when the Marquis de Caſtelhar, Brother to M. Patinho, and Ambaſſador from the King of Spain, had his particular Audiences; and in a Conference which he has lately had with the Cardinal de Fleury and the Garde des Sceaux, thoſe two Miniſters told his Excellency, 'That the Poles ought not to give 'any Credit to the Diſcourſes and Writings 'of the Court of Saxony, and thoſe of that 'Party.' They alſo added, 'That they would 'bend their utmoſt Zeal and Application for 'haſtening the Accompliſhment of the King's 'Deſigns for ſupporting the King of Poland 'and maintaining the Liberties of the Poliſh 'Nation.'

The laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, by the Way of Venice, ſay, that the Ruſſian Miniſter there has had frequent Conferences with the Grand Vizir concerning the Cham of the Crim-Tartars Project on Dagheſtan, but all to no Purpoſe; the Vizir very gravely urges, that the Motives of Conſcience and Religion demand the Recovery of that Province to the Standard of the great Prophet Mahomet. The Project is approv'd, the Cham has receiv'd all the Marks of Honour conferr'd on ſuch Occaſions, with 200,000 Zequins, or Gold Ducats, for the neceſſary Preparations, and a great Convoy of Ammunition and Proviſions of all Sorts is ſet out from Conſtantinople for the Place where the Tartars Army is to aſſemble.

They write from Paris, that the Army of the Allies in Lombardy is gone into Quarters of Refreſhment, the King of Sardinia having his at San Martino, Marſhal Noailles at Caſtiglione near the Venetian Territories, and the Duke de Montemar at San Benedetto. During this Receſs the Spaniards are to undertake the Siege of Mirandola by way of Diverſion; that of Mantua is to be commenc'd as ſoon as the Seaſon returns for Action, and is to be carried on by the Duke de Montemar, with his whole Corps of Spaniſh Troops, and a certain Contingent of French and Piedmonteſe. His Catholick Majeſty is to ſend, in the mean while, 100 Pieces of battering Cannon, and 8 Millions of Money to defray the Expences of the Enterprize.

The Baron de Wutgenau, who commands in Mantua, has cauſed all the Cauſeways to be broke up, to deprive the Inhabitants of all Poſſibility of maintaining a Correſpondence with the Army of the Allies.

The Emperor's Army was ſtill in the Trentine, when the laſt Letters came from France.

SATURDAY JULY 12, 1735.

IT has often happen'd that one Parliament has cenſured what has been done by another, and very often, when Parliaments have been diſſolved, their Proceedings have been examined with all Freedom, both in Diſcourſe, and in Writing —I am not now going either to praiſe or condemn the Behaviour of the laſt Parliaments, but I ſhall give an Extract of ſome of their Votes with a few Remarks upon them by another Hand, by which it will appear how vain a Suſpicion it was, that Places and Penſions had any Influence in directing their Votes.

Upon his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne, tho' a General Peace was not quite eſtabliſhed, yet there was no actual War in Europe, Hoſtilities were ceaſed before Gibraltar, and his Majeſty in his Speech to both Houſes of Parliament then in being, was pleaſed to tell them, "That the ſtrict Union and Harmony which "had hitherto ſubſiſted among the Allies of Hanover, "had chiefly contributed to the near Proſpect of a "General Peace,—that he had already given Orders "for ſending back ſome of the Regiments brought "from Ireland; and would proceed to reduce his Forces, both by Sea and Land, as ſoon as it could be "done without Prejudice to the common Cauſe, and "conſiſtent with the Intereſt of the Kingdom.

On the 27th of January 1727, at the Opening of the new Parliament, His Majeſty was pleaſed to tell them, "That he had Hopes of ſeeing the public Peace and "Tranquility very ſoon reſtored; That Preliminary "Articles for a general Pacification had been ſome "Time ago ſigned, and accepted by the contracting "Parties on both Sides; that he had great Reaſon to "hope the Difficulties would ſoon be intirely remo"ved.—And goes on.—You may depend upon it, "that my firſt Care ſhall be to reduce, from Time to "Time, the Expence of the Public, as often, and as "ſoon, as the Intereſt and Safety of my People will "permit it.

The Commons on the 8th of February following, reſolved that 15000 Men be employ'd for the Sea Service, for the Year 1728. And two Days afterwards they reſolved, That the Number of effective Men to be provided for Guards and Garriſons in Great Britain, and for Guernſey and Jerſey, for the Year 1728, be 22955 Men, Commiſſion and Non-Commiſſion Officers included. And that a Sum not exceeding 78697 l. 8 s. 9 d. be granted to his Majeſty, for defraying the Charges of the ſaid 22955 effective Men And again

Jovis 15 die Febr. 1727.

Reſolved, That a Sum not exceeding 230,923 l. 11 s. 8 d. be granted to his Majeſty for defraying the Expence of 12000 Heſſians taken into his Majeſty's Pay, for the Service of the Year 1728.

Martis 20 die Febr. 1727.

Reſolved, That the Sum of 50,000 l. be granted to his Majeſty for one Year's Subſidy to the King of Sweden, purſuant to a Treaty dated the 14th of March 1726.

Reſolved, That the Sum of 25000 l be granted to his Majeſty for one Year's Subſidy to the Duke of Brunſwick-Lunenburg-Wolfenbuttle, purſuant to a Treaty dated the 25th of Nov. 1727.

Here then we ſee, notwithſtanding his Majeſty's Gracious Declaration to eaſe his People, the Commons, over and above the 15000 Seamen, and the Garriſons of Gibraltar, Port Mahon, and other Places abroad, and over and above the Subſidies to the King of Sweden, and the Duke of Wolfembuttle, voted a Standing Army, for the Year 1728, of 34955 Men.

Luna 26 die Febr. 1727.

The Houſe being informed that one of the Sheriffs of the City of London attended at the Door, he was called in, and at the Bar preſented to the Houſe a Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council aſſembled, and then he withdrew.

And the ſaid Petition was read, alledging, That the Duties already laid upon Coals and Culm imported into the Port of London, only affect their Trade, and the Inequality of the Burthen thereof, is a great Diſcouragement to the Manufacturers, as well as an Hardſhip upon the whole Trading People in and about the City of London; and praying the Conſideration of the Houſe, and ſuch Relief as to the Houſe ſhall ſeem meet.

Reſolved, That the ſaid Petition be rejected

The ſame Day the Commons voted a Land-Tax of 3 s. in the Pound, and about this Time being determined to examine ſtrictly how the Public Money had been diſpoſed of, they came to the following Reſolution.

Lunæ 19 die Febr. 1727.

Reſolved, That an Humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, that he will be graciouſly pleaſed to direct the proper Officers to lay before this Houſe, a particular and diſtinct Account of the Diſtribution of the Sum of 250,000 l. which (in an Account laid before this Houſe, ſhewing how the Money given for the Year 1726 had been diſpoſed of) is charged to have been iſſued for other Expences and Engagements, over and above ſuch as are therein particularly ſpecified for ſecuring the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and preſerving and reſtoring the Peace of Europe; and of the Time or Times when the ſaid Sum of 250,000 l. was iſſued and diſtributed.

Jovis 29 die Febr. 1727.

Mr Treaſurer reported to the Houſe, that their Addreſs of the 19th of Febr. Inſtant, had been preſented to his Majeſty; and that his Majeſty had commanded him to acquaint this Houſe, That the late King, his Majeſty's Royal Father, having upon the like Occaſion, received from the laſt Parliament the moſt dutiful Acknowledgments of his great Care and Wiſdom, in taking ſuch Steps, and entring into ſuch Engagements, as he thought would beſt conduce to the Security of this Kingdom, and the Preſervation of the Peace of Europe; and at the ſame Time the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of their future Support, in all ſuch further Meaſures, as he ſhould find neceſſary and expedient, for preventing a Rupture, and for the Honour and Advantage of theſe Kingdoms; and a Power being accordingly given by Parliament, to his late Majeſty, for iſſuing and applying ſuch Sums of Money, as he ſhould find neceſſary, for anſwering and defraying ſuch Expences and Engagements, as had been or ſhould be made, for theſe great and neceſſary Purpoſes: Some Part of the Money mentioned in this Addreſs, had been iſſued and diſburſed by his late Majeſty, and the remaining Part has been applied by his Majeſty for carrying on the ſame neceſſary Services, for ſtrengthening his Alliances, and in fulfilling Engagements of the utmoſt Importance to theſe Kingdoms, and to the general Tranquillity of Europe, which require the greateſt Secrecy. His Majeſty therefore hopes, that this Houſe will repoſe the ſame Confidence in him, and be aſſured that the Money has been neceſſarily expended, purſuant to the Power given by Act of Parliament, and for the Uſes and Purpoſes thereby directed, and that a particular and diſtinct Account thereof cannot be given, without manifeſt Prejudice to the Public.

It is to be obſerv'd, That this Sum of 250,000 l is about 6 d in the Pound upon all the Lands in Great Britain; and perhaps an inquiſitive Perſon may be apt to inquire, what the Commons did upon this Anſwer. To ſatisfy ſuch Perſons, I inform them, That, like dutiful Subjects, they Reſolved, That the Houſe ſhould adjourn till the next Monday Morning.

Some of the Commons, it ſeems, apprehended that the Clerks of the Exchequer had made ſome Omiſſions, and committed ſome Blunders in the Accompts delivered into the Houſe, and Mr. Chock, one of thoſe Clerks, having been frequently called upon to explain and rectify thoſe Accompts, and having, by Leave, withdrawn one of them, gave Occaſion for the following Motions.

Veneris 5 die Aprilis, 1728.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That it appears to this Houſe, that many great Omiſſions, Errors, and Miſtakes, have been made in the Accompts lately deliver'd to this Houſe from the Exchequer. It paſs'd in the Negative.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion being put, That all Accounts to be delivered for the future to this Houſe, from the Exchequer, be ſigned by the Auditors of the Exchequer, or the Clerk of the Pells, or by their lawful Deputies, or chief Clerk, or one of them. It paſs'd in the Negative.

Martis 2 die Aprilis, 1728.

A Petition of Charles Townſhend, in behalf of George Townſhend, and others the late Commiſſioners for Licenſing Hawkers and Pedlars, was preſented to the Houſe, and read, praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill to enable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, or the Lord high Treaſurer, for the Time being, to compound with the ſaid late Commiſſioners of Hawker, &c. for the Debt due to the Crown, occaſioned by the Default of Mr. Thomas Tomkins, late Caſhier of the ſaid Office, who hath withdrawn himſelf into Paris beyond the Seas, or that they may have ſuch other Relief as the Houſe ſhall think fit

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer acquainted the Houſe, That the Circumſtances of this Caſe having been humbly laid before His Majeſty, his Majeſty had commanded him to acquaint this Houſe, that his Majeſty gives his Conſent, That this Houſe may do therein as they think fit.

Order'd, That the ſaid Petition be referr'd to the Conſideration of a Committee of the whole Houſe

The Houſe accordingly went into a Committee to take this Petition into Conſideration, and a Bill was thereupon brought in for their Relief, which afterwards paſſed into a Law. And this may be ſaid to be another Inſtance of their great Complaiſance in the Affair of Public Accompts

What the Merit of theſe Commiſſioners was, does not plainly appear. But if we may give Credit to the former Houſe of Commons, their Merit will appear from the following Reſolutions.

Martis 7 die Martii, 1726.

Mr. Farrer, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom it was referr'd, to conſider of the Petition of George Townſhend, &c. the Reſolutions they had directed him to report to the Houſe, and he read the Report in his Place, and afterward deliver'd it in at the Table, where the ſaid Reſolutions were read, and are as follow, viz.

Reſolved, That it appears to this Committee, that no Money was paid into his Majeſty's Exchequer, on Accompt of the Duties upon Hawkers and Pedlars, from Midſummer 1719, to Midſummer 1723, except the Sum of 1550 l. altho' the Commiſſioners, for managing the ſaid Revenue, are required, by Act of Parliament, to pay all the Moneys ariſing by the ſaid Duties into the Exchequer once in every Week.

Reſolved, That it appears to this Committee, that by the looſe, careleſs, and negligent Management of the late Commiſſioners for the Duties on Hawkers and Pedlars, who were the Accomptants for the ſaid Revenue, there is a Deficiency of 36695 l. 13 s. and 5 d. over and above 6000 l. which has been paid by the Securities of Thomas Tomkins, late Caſhier to the ſaid Commiſſioners

The ſaid Reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond Time, were, upon the Queſtion ſeverally put, agreed unto by the Houſe.

Ordered, That the ſaid Petition of the ſaid George Townſhend, &c. late Commiſſioners for Licenſing Hawkers and Pedlars, be rejected.

We have already ſeen, that there had been no leſs than the Sum of 250,000 l. in the Hands of the Government, for Secret Services, of which no Account had been given; and yet in the ſame Seſſions we ſee the following Reſolutions.

Lunæ 6 die Maii, 1728.

Mr. Treaſurer acquainted the Houſe, That he had a Meſſage from his Majeſty to this Houſe, ſign'd by his Majeſty, and he preſented the ſame to the Houſe, and it was read by Mr. Speaker, and is as follows, viz.

George R.

His Majeſty being under ſome Engagements, enter'd into and concerted with the Advice and Concurrence of the laſt Parliament, for ſecuring the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, and for reſtoring and preſerving the Peace of Europe; and having been enabled to anſwer and defray the Charges and Expences thereof, as far as they have hitherto become due, and payable, and there being ſtill wanting a Sum not very conſiderable to perfect and fulfil theſe Obligations; his Majeſty relying on the Duty and Affection of his Commons, hopes they will enable him to diſcharge ſuch Engagements as ſtill remain unſatisfy'd upon this Head of Service

Reſolved, That this Houſe will To-morrow Morning take his Majeſty's moſt Gracious Meſſage into Conſideration.
